

HB 2331

SEN. MORRISSEY

1. After line 1778, substitute

insert

3. That, except for a violation of subdivision A 6 of § 18.2-31 of the Code of Virginia where the offender was 18 years of age or older at the time of the offense, a court may suspend in full or in part any mandatory minimum sentence for any person who has not been sentenced for an offense that required the imposition of a mandatory minimum sentence prior to the effective date of this act.